) PETITIONER'S WAIVER OF APPEARANCE
 FOR PRE-TRIAL MATTERS AND MOTION
 FOR TELEPHONIC OR VIDEO
 CONFERENCING

Date: 3/5/2007

The above petitioner moves this court to allow him to remain at the Federal Medical Center federal facility at Devens Massachusetts on all pre-trial matters in the above actions and allow him to participate in the pre-trial proceedings, if appearance is necessary, by telephonic or video conferencing.

Telephonic or video conferencing would be more economical for the government and would save the government time and energy of moving, or transporting, the petitioner from one place to another.

Transporting the petitioner for pre-trial matters would burden the petitioner in that he has restricted mobility because of two strokes, a spinal injury and nerve damage, and he has a cardiac problem.

Telephonic or video conferencing would not burden the government because the electronic devices are already established and has been utilized previously in other cases.
